NEW ENGLAND DESIGN HALL OF FAME

Awards

NOVEMBER 7, 2013

New England's residential design community came together for the seventh time to celebrate the premier figures in our region. The scene was set with gorgeous decor and the State Room's dramatic views of the Boston skyline. Following a festive cocktail hour, guests settled in for dinner and the event kicked off with a presentation of the 2013 New England Design Hall of Fame scholarship to Endicott College. Emcee Stacy Kunstel, New England Home's homes editor, then proceeded to present awards to the 2013 inductees: architects Patrick Ahearn, Andrus Burr, and Ann McCallum; interior designers Anthony Catalfano and Cindy Rinfret; landscape architects Gregory Lombardi, H. Keith Wagner, and Jeff Hodgson; and furniture maker Thomas Moser.
